

Mercer Island School District is hosting a unique professional development opportunity featuring nationally renowned professor and author Dr. Pedro Noguera

Schedule for

Wednesday, October 7

2:30 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

All certificated staff and classified staff are invited to a session with

Dr. Pedro Noguera who will discuss strategies and principles of courageous leadership to guide achievement for every student

4:15 p.m. - 5:15 p.m.

Event planned with School-based Diversity Action Teams

5:30 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.

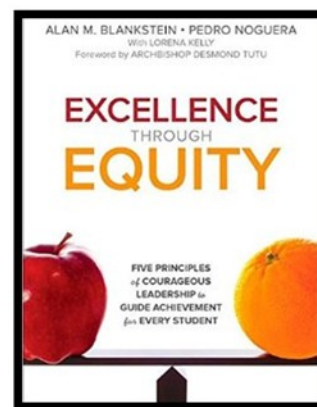

Diversity Advisory Committee Discussion

6:00-7:00 District and PTA Event
Community Engagement for New Families
Pizza and beverages provided

Location: Mercer Island High School
PAC and High School Commons
9100 SE 42nd Street
Mercer Island, WA 98040

Dr. Pedro Noguera is the co-author of “Excellence through Equity: Five Principles of Courageous Leadership to Guide Achievement for Every Student”

Pedro Noguera is the Peter L. Agnew Professor of Education at New York University. Dr. Noguera is a sociologist whose scholarship and research focuses on the ways in which schools are influenced by social and economic conditions, as well as by demographic trends in local, regional and global contexts. Dr. Noguera has published over 200 research and scholarly articles, monographs, research reports and editorials on topics such as urban school reform, education policy, conditions that promote student achievement, the role of education in community development, youth violence, and race and ethnic relations in American society.