School Community:

Community Service Awards

The MIHS Community Service Awards Program is organized by the MIHS Counseling Center in partnership with the MIHS PTSA. This is an award that any Senior or Junior may apply for and it's based on community service hours performed throughout the student's high school career beginning the first day of 9th grade. At graduation, MIHS Community Service Award recipients are given a pin to wear on their gown. The deadline for submitting hours in time to receive a pin at graduation is April 30. Go to the Counseling Department website and click on the Community Service Awards link. Please note: it is the student's responsibility to provide documented verification of hours worked (e.g., a certificate or an email or letter from a supervisor).

National Poetry Month

To celebrate National Poetry Month KMIH wants to hear YOU recite your favorite poem on the Radio! Drop by the 889 The Bridge Studios during either Lunch today to record your favorite prose then tune in to 88.9 Thursday from 4-6pm to hear an afternoon of literary excellence saluting Islanders who love poetry including YOU!

English Tutoring

Looking for writing help with your essays? English tutoring is available twice a week. Mondays after school from 3 pm - 4 pm in room 210 and Wednesdays before school from 7:40am - 8:40 am in room 211B. Please note that Wednesdays before school is a new time.

Pass/Fail

Students interested in taking a class for a Pass/Fail instead of a letter grade, please come by the Counselor of the Day table or the Counseling Center for more information. The deadline is Friday, May 3rd.

Much Ado About Nothing

Love is in the air! Beatrice and Benedick, two of Shakespeare's wittiest characters, have sworn off love. Hero and Claudio have jumped into love. All their friends and enemies get involved in the action. Join Mercer Island High School's Drama Department in their spring play, Much Ado About Nothing, by William Shakespeare. Showing April 25th-27th at 7pm, May 2nd-4th at 7pm. Presale tickets are $10, and $15 at the door.

U.S. Service Academy Night

Learn the process to obtain a congressional nomination to the U.S. Service Academies. This event is recommended for all interested high school and middle school students residing in Washington State's 9th Congressional District. You can also meet and ask questions to representatives from US Military Academy at West Point, US Merchant Marine Academy, US Coast Guard Academy, US Air Force Academy, and US Naval Academy. This event will be on Tuesday, May 7, 2019, 6:00-8:00PM, at Renton Technical College, Room C-111. Located on 3000 NE 4th Street, Renton WA 98056 and sponsored by Congressman Adam Smith (WA-09). For questions please contact Jena Yang, at (425) 793-5180; Jena.yang@mail.house.gov

Earth Week

Earth Week Fact of the Day: The US gives off 25% of the global carbon dioxide emissions even though we are only 5% of the world's population. What can you do to help lower your carbon footprint? Carpool, ride a bike or walk instead of driving. In addition, turn off lights and electronic devices that are not in use. This saves you money and helps reduce climate change.

Mercer Trade Inc

Mercer Trade Inc. is hosting a fundraiser for the Burao Academy in Somalia, Africa during bridges on May 1st. The Burao Academy is a small all-girls school with a focus in STEM fields. Mercer Trade Inc. is selling fun blue and green donuts by the dozen to all Bridges classes this day to raise money for both the Burao Academy and MIHS' Green Team club in honor of Earth Day. Five percent of all sales will be donated to the MIHS Green Team and the remaining amount will be donated to the Burao Academy. Bridges teachers can either pay for their students' donuts or ask their classes to provide money. Payment will be required when the donuts are delivered.

Pricing of donuts: 1 Dozen / $20.00, 2 Dozen / $30.00 or 3 Dozen / $40.00

Ceramics

If you have taken ceramics or have work to pick up from showcase, please come retrieve it by May 3rd or it will be donated.

Attendance Office

The Attendance office will be closing at 2:50pm today. Please plan on stopping by before the end of the day.

Recycling:

Recycling will not be picked up today. Thank you.

Clubs:

American Civil Liberties Union club

Hey students! Come join the American Civil Liberties Union club today after school, in room 417! We will be talking about current events, including the 2020 elections.

Cooking Club and Mock Trial

Attention Islanders! Cooking Club and Mock Trial are co-hosting an epic, two-day fundraiser today, April 24th and tomorrow, April 25th during both lunches! Bring some cash to get a taste of authentic Asian cuisine such as noodles, dumplings, and curry. Treat yourself to a variety of desserts and grab a refreshing drink or two at the tables right by the cafeteria! Cooking Club will donate all proceeds to Food Lifeline, a local food distribution center for the nonprofit organization Feeding America. Food Lifeline distributes food to more than 300 food banks, shelters, and meal programs throughout Western Washington, providing the equivalent of 116,000 meals every day for hungry children, adults, and seniors. Every dollar raised at the fundraiser can provide 4 meals for hungry children in our community. See you all there this Wednesday and Thursday!

International Club

Do you love learning about new cultures, hanging out with exchange students and applying your leadership skills? International Club is now accepting applications for officer positions for the 2019-2020 school year. If you are interested, pick up a packet outside of Susie Brown's office in the Counseling Center. The deadline is May 15th.

Seniors:

Krishna D. Vara Award

Nominate a senior for the $2,000 Krishna D. Vara Award! Recognize a student who makes an extraordinary impact in your life and the lives of others through true friendship, remarkable spirit and community involvement. The nomination form is easy and only takes about 30 minutes to fill out. One deserving senior will be honored at the Senior Assembly. Find out more and nominate at <http://www.kdvaward.com/> or pick up a form from the MIHS counseling office. Deadline for nominations is Friday, May 31.
