

School Community:

Leadership Appointed Positions

Hey Islanders, packets for Leadership Appointed Positions are now available in the main office. If you are interested in applying for an appointed position, please turn in your packet by Wednesday, May 1st, and make sure to be at the mandatory meeting that same day after school in room 737.

Community Service Awards

The MIHS Community Service Awards Program is organized by the MIHS Counseling Center in partnership with the MIHS PTSA. This is an award that any Senior or Junior may apply for and it's based on community service hours performed throughout the student's high school career beginning the first day of 9th grade. At graduation, MIHS Community Service Award recipients are given a pin to wear on their gown. The deadline for submitting hours in time to receive a pin at graduation is April 30. Go to the Counseling Department website and click on the Community Service Awards link. Please note: it is the student's responsibility to provide documented verification of hours worked (e.g., a certificate or an email or letter from a supervisor).

National Poetry Month

To celebrate National Poetry Month KMIH wants to hear YOU recite your favorite poem on the Radio! This afternoon, from 4-6pm tune in to 88.9 to hear an afternoon of literary excellence saluting Islanders who love poetry including YOU!

English Tutoring

Looking for writing help with your essays? English tutoring is available twice a week. Mondays after school from 3 pm - 4 pm in room 210 and Wednesdays before school from 7:40am - 8:40 am in room 211B. Please note that Wednesdays before school is a new time.

Pass/Fail

Students interested in taking a class for a Pass/Fail instead of a letter grade, please come by the Counselor of the Day table or the Counseling Center for more information. The deadline is Friday, May 3rd.

Much Ado About Nothing

Love is in the air! Beatrice and Benedick, two of Shakespeare's wittiest characters, have sworn off love. Hero and Claudio have jumped into love. All their friends and enemies get involved in the action. Join Mercer Island High School's Drama Department in their spring play, Much Ado About Nothing, by William Shakespeare. Showing tonight, April 25th-27th at 7pm, May 2nd-4th at 7pm. Presale tickets are $10, and $15 at the door.

U.S. Service Academy Night

Learn the process to obtain a congressional nomination to the U.S. Service Academies. This event is recommended for all interested high school and middle school students residing in Washington State's 9th Congressional District. You can also meet and ask questions to representatives from US Military Academy at West Point, US Merchant Marine Academy, US Coast Guard Academy, US Air Force Academy, and US Naval Academy. This event will be on Tuesday, May 7, 2019, 6:00-8:00PM, at Renton Technical College, Room C-111. Located on 3000 NE 4th Street, Renton WA 98056 and sponsored by Congressman Adam Smith (WA-09). For questions please contact Jena Yang, at (425) 793-5180; Jena.yang@mail.house.gov

Earth Week

Earth Week Fact of the Day: Did you know that the U.S. recycling rate is only around 34.5%? If we can get the rate to 75%, the effect will be equal to removing 50 million passenger cars from our roads. Recycling saves energy, reduces CO2 emission, protects our forests and oceans, and creates jobs. Everyone benefits when we recycle.

Mercer Trade Inc

Mercer Trade Inc. is hosting a fundraiser for the Burao Academy in Somalia, Africa during bridges on May 1st. The Burao Academy is a small all-girls school with a focus in STEM fields. Mercer Trade Inc. is selling fun blue and green donuts by the dozen to all Bridges classes this day to raise money for both the Burao Academy and MIHS' Green Team club in honor of Earth Day. Five percent of all sales will be donated to the MIHS Green Team and the remaining amount will be donated to the Burao Academy. Bridges teachers can either pay for their students' donuts or ask their classes to provide money. Payment will be required when the donuts are delivered.

Pricing of donuts: 1 Dozen / $20.00, 2 Dozen / $30.00 or 3 Dozen / $40.00

Ceramics

If you have taken ceramics or have, work to pick up from showcase, please come retrieve it by May 3rd or it will be donated.

Recycling:

Recycling will be picked up today in the 300 hallway and Main offices. Please have your recycling out before 5th period. Thank you.

Clubs:

Women in STEM

Hey Islanders! Women in STEM is back with a super awesome meeting today! We will be watching an interesting Ted Talks on science and medicine! Please join us and bring all your friends to Room 101 today after school, and as always there will be great snacks!

Cooking Club and Mock Trial

Cooking Club and Mock Trial are co-hosting a taste of authentic Asian cuisine, today, April 25th during both lunches! Bring some cash to get Asian cuisine such as noodles, dumplings, and curry. Treat yourself to a variety of desserts and grab a refreshing drink or two at the tables right by the cafeteria! Cooking Club will donate all proceeds to Food Lifeline, a local food distribution center for the nonprofit organization Feeding America. Food Lifeline distributes food to more than 300 food banks, shelters, and meal programs throughout Western Washington, providing the equivalent of 116,000 meals every day for hungry children, adults, and seniors. Every dollar raised at the fundraiser can provide 4 meals for hungry children in our community. See you all there this Wednesday and Thursday!

International Club

Do you love learning about new cultures, hanging out with exchange students and applying your leadership skills? International Club is now accepting applications for officer positions for the 2019-2020 school year. If you are interested, pick up a packet outside of Susie Brown's office in the Counseling Center. The deadline is May 15th.

Seniors:

Attention Seniors

It is time to audition to perform musical pieces for Senior Assembly and Graduation. Please see the guidelines for auditioning posted to the Class of 2019 page on Schoology. You must review these guidelines in order to sign-up to audition. Auditions will be held after school on May 6th. If you have any questions please speak with your elected Senior Class Officers.

Krishna D. Vara Award
