"Which 3 sessions are you going to during Islander Hour this week?"

On Wednesday, students in grades 9 through 11 will have an opportunity to attend three 10-minute sessions hosted by various staff members. The sessions will help students make informed and intentional choices about their courses for next year. Check your Schoology account for the session options and for the latest information. If you have not viewed the list yet, do so right away so you know which 3 sessions you plan to attend in advance.
