Online Publishing of Student Work

I understand that our daughter or son's audio presentation and/or video presentation is planned to be published through the District web site or blog. Work will be published by title only. Student's full name may appear in the credits of the movie. No home address or telephone number will appear with such work. This permission is to support our continued policy of exhibiting quality student work and to further communication with parents and community. You may revoke this permission at any time by providing written notice to the Executive Director, Learning and Technology Services.

I grant permission for the District Web Site publishing as described above.

I do not grant permission for the District Web Site publishing as described above.

*All work will on the district website appear with a copyright notice prohibiting the copying of the art or written work without express written permission. In the event anyone requests such permission, those requests will be forwarded to the parent.
